Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Vesterday.

A delegation of Georgetown business men waited on the commissioners yesterday and favored the erection of the proposed new bridge at the Three Sisters, above the aqueduct bridge,

Prosecuting Attorney Thomas called the attention of Judge Snell yesterday to the case of Alonzo Kell, sentenced to the reform school for attempting to poison his uncle. Mr. Thomas, said that the school authorities refused to admit him, and that the boy was in jail with no charge against him, and he thought that some disposition should be made of the case. of the case.

The annual meeting of the Congressional Temperance society was held at the capitol yesterday morning. The following officers were elected: President, R. B. Vance, North Carolina; vice presidents—Hon. Messra. Dibrell, Tennessee; Plats, Connecticat; Long, Massachusetts; Lacey, Michigan; James, New York; Dingley, Maine; excentive committee—Hon. Messra. Price, Wisconsin; J. D. Taylor, Ohio; George, Oregon; secretary, Rev. John W. Chickering, D. D. It was voted to hold the fiftieth public anniversary the evening of 23th instant (Sunday) at the New York Aveenue Presbyterian church.

It must have been a terrible state of affairs that caused the posimist to ask: "Who can stand before his cold?" In his day the remedies were few and doubtrid. How much happier should this generation be, that has as a household remedy Dr. Bull's Cough Syrist! So wonderful have been its cures that millions rise up and call it "blessed."

The Daily Death Record. The deaths reported yesterday were as follows: Mebel G. Peudei, Freddie B. Ward, and Nettie Fraser, bronchitis; Clara M. Fordham, pneumonia; Lewis M. Brown, measles; Ella Snowden, heart clot: Horace T. Reynolds, congestion of brain; James Gardner, gastritis; James E. Drown, albuminuria; James Golden and Edith Elliott, scarlatina; George H. Banks, cuteritis; Amanda Borden, tetanus; Augustus Hoffman, scrofula; Aaron Whoeler, pneumonia; Mary Tyler, premature birti; Francis R. Sweeney, meningitis; Henry Brocks, Luura Suit, and Anderson Dabney, phthisis; Lua Cream, gagrene of lungs; Summer Kelling, meningitis; total, 22. The number of deaths from consumption was below the average, being only three, or nearly 14 per cent. From all pulmonary diseases, however, the deaths were nine, or over 40 per cent. In others nearly one half. ham, pneumonia; Lewis M. Brown, measles;

St. Valentine's Mail.

Mr. James E. Bell, superintendent of the city postoffice, in conversation with a Repus-Lican reporter yesterday as to the increase of the St Valentine's day mails, said the in-crease in the local mails for the past three days was so small as to be hardly perceptible. At the same time he produced a memorandum book, and after a short time was greatly sur-prised at the result. The figures showed the business of the day to be about twice as much r's the average local business. As the reporter was leaving the building he met Mr. Thomas, general mail clerk, who said the article published a few days since referring to valentines as merchandise had caused the office considerable trouble. He said three-fourths of the valentines sent through the postoffice for the last three days contained only I cent stamps each, and caused a glut in the office for several hours each day. city postoffice, in conversation with a REPUB-

The Shakspeare Recitals. Shakspeare's "Merry Wives of Windsor' was the subject of Mr. Locko Richards' second recital at Willard hall yesterday. The audience, a large one, comprised many distinguished people. Mr. Richards' interpretation of his subject was a masterly one. Before his reading of the play he recited several passages from "David Copperfield" and the courtship scene from "Henry VIII." His rendition of the latter was eloquent and scholarly, and he displayed considerable comedy power, with good effect. The passages from "The Merry Wives of Windsor" were selected with good taste, and his excellent voice was reard with pleasing effect. He was loudly applauded by his audience. The sale of seats for his next recital, "A Winter's Tale," on Monday, has been very large. ond recital at Willard hall yesterday. The
